Prof Sunil K Choudhary, Director

We are happy to release the third issue of our quarterly Newsletter, Sanchayan that covers the three-month activities and events of the Centre from August-October 2022. The current issue of Sanchayan highlights many significant activities and achievements of the Centre from the quarter of the year 2022.

The current quarter was marked by many achievements, accomplishments and attainments acquired by the Fellows and Scholars of the Centre. Reflecting on the current issues of Russia-Ukraine War and the changing global politics, the Centre initiated interactions and engagements of the Resource Person and the Participants. Reiterating a call of Swami Vivekananda to his Chicago lecture where he had proclaimed the West to learn from the East; the lecture by Prof Kundan Singh from the Hindu University, US mesmerized the audience with his emphatic arguments that Indian philosophy and knowledge system should continue to guide the current and contemporary discourse.

The current quarter also unveiled exemplary contributions of the Centre in terms of research, teaching and publications.

Working assiduously in transforming our motto of an integrated, inclusive and innate knowledge with the objective of 'Aiming High, Touching Sky', the CGS Parivar has been moving slowly, steadily and strongly towards achieving its goals.
